Dear Reciprocal Officer:

We are pleased to extend continued reciprocal privileges to your members for the 2018 yachting season. These privileges remain valid until revoked.

Our Flag Officers for the year 2017 are:

Commodore	Simon Huddy
Vice Commodore	Ryan Laudien
Rear Commodore	Bob Delany
Fleet Captain (race)	Neal Berger
Staff Captain (cruise)	Doug Herchmer & Joanne McIlveen
Past Commodore	Peter Howells

Visiting boaters who moor at Schooner Cove Marina will enjoy all that Fairwinds Community and Resort has to offer (golf, fitness, pool, tennis, clubhouse, lounge and hiking trails). Please contact the marina office to enquire if transportation is available to the Fairwinds Clubhouse or Quality Foods.

Prior to arrival, call Schooner Cove Marina on VHF 66A or telephone 250-468-5364 for slip assignment. If arriving after hours, tie up at the outer docks where space is available and register with the marina office the next morning. The marina office, along with washrooms, showers (no charge) and laundry facilities are located in a trailer at the top of the ramp.

Please make sure your members have an up-to-date membership card and are flying their club burgee upon registration. Free moorage for 2 non-consecutive nights per calendar year is offered; marina rates thereafter. Reciprocal moorage is available on a first come first served basis.

We wish you a safe and enjoyable yachting season. General information on our club can be gained through our website at www.scyc.ca.

Yours sincerely,

Alan Sinclair
